

A stylized landscape illustration with a purple background. On the left, a bright yellow sun with a white outline is partially obscured by a blue mountain range. A red mountain range is in the center. On the right, a blue mountain range is visible. In the foreground, a brownish ground with a blue stream flows from the left towards the right. A small green plant with white leaves is on the right. A large, semi-transparent water droplet is in the center. The text is centered over the landscape.
