POLITICS, FOREIGN POLICY AND POLITICAL ECONOMY OF CONTEMPORARY CHINA

TOChina is a unique educational salon for engaged young scholars and professionals from various backgrounds in which they can learn about, discuss and debate the presence of China on the global stage. A salon with edge and purpose like TOChina prepares participants for the real world of China today and tomorrow.

Geremie Barmé, Director of the Australian Centre on China in the World (CIW)

The TOChina Summer School, a partnership of the Department of Cultures, Politics and Society, University of Torino, and T.wai, the Torino World Affairs Institute, has been running with the support of Fondazione CRT since 2007 to help outstanding students, young scholars and engaged professionals reflect on the complexity of China's return to global prominence from a plurality of perspectives.

Based in the new "Luigi Einaudi" campus of the University of Torino, in Italy's historical Alpine capital, the Summer School welcomes participants in a vivacious international environment, where an informal work style allows for free, in-depth discussion and first-rate networking.

Activities take place Monday to Friday, from 9.30 am to 5.30 pm, featuring lectures, role plays and extensive Q&A sessions with some of the world's best academics. In 2013 the School will welcome the following faculty members:

Geremie Barmé (ANU), Shaun Breslin (Warwick University),
Chen Mumin 陈牧民 (National Chung Hsing University),
Kent Deng (LSE), David Kelly (China Policy),
Christopher McNally (Chaminade University),
Pan Wei 潘维 (Peking University), Anja Senz (Universität Duisburg-Essen),
Luigi Tomba (ANU), Wang Yizhou 王逸舟 (Peking University),
Wang Zheng 汪铮 (Seton Hall University).

Applications are accepted as from March 11th 2013.

Just visit the School website for more info and to apply online.

Students may apply for ZEROTASSE scholarships, waving tuition costs completely. Those who do not live in the Torino area can alternatively apply for the FREETORINO scholarships, covering tuition, accommodation and, partially, meals for the duration of their stay in Torino.
