

SUMMER SCHOOL

June 25/July 6, 2012

TOChina

POLITICS, FOREIGN POLICY AND POLITICAL ECONOMY OF CONTEMPORARY CHINA

"TOChina is a uniquely effective educational venue that offers qualified young international scholars and budding professionals access to a world-class faculty of prominent China specialists in an intimate, small-group setting that encourages informal interaction and hands-on learning. I recommend it highly and without reservation."

Prof. Richard Baum, Distinguished Professor of Political Science, University of California, Los Angeles

The TOChina Summer School, a partnership of the Faculty of Political Science - University of Torino and T.wai - Torino World Affairs Institute, has been running with the support of Fondazione CRT since 2007 to help outstanding students, young scholars, engaged professionals and government officials harness the complexity of China's development and return to global prominence.

Based in Torino (Italy) the Summer School welcomes participants in a uniquely vivacious international environment, where an informal work style allows for free, in-depth discussion and first-rate networking. In 2012 the School is delighted to count the Australian Centre on China in the World (CIW) of the Australian National University as a partner institution.

Training runs Monday to Friday, from 9.30am to 5pm. In 2012 the School will welcome the following faculty members:

Geremie Barmé (ANU), Kent Deng (LSE), Bonnie Glaser (CSIS), Maurizio Marinelli (UTS), John Ravenhill (ANU), Anja Senz (Universität Duisburg-Essen), David Shambaugh (GWU), Ashley Tellis (Carnegie Endowment), Luigi Tomba (ANU), Yu Yongding (CASS).

Participants to the program are selected through an intensive and highly competitive process, strictly based on academic merit, professional achievements and individual potential.

Graduate and PhD students make up the bulk of the class every year.

Students may apply for several ZEROTASSE scholarships, waving tuition costs completely. Those who do not live in the Torino area can alternatively apply for the FREETORINO scholarships, covering tuition, accommodation and, partially, meals for the duration of their stay in Torino.
