

Geodiversity and Geoheritage

international summer workshop

26-28 June 2014 - Terras de Cavaleiros Geopark - Portugal

General programme

	26th June (Thursday)	27th June (Friday)	28th June (Saturday)
Morning	Arrival to Macedo de Cavaleiros	8:30 – Field trip (part II)	09:30 – Lectures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Protecting the palaeontological heritage in Spain: points of interest and protective measures. A general perspective (Guillermo Melendez) Multimedia and 3D modeling of cultural landscapes (Marco Giardino) Geoheritage of Michigan's Keweenaw: Developing grassroots momentum for a geopark (William Rose) 12:30 – Debate and conclusions (José Brilha)
Afternoon	13:30 – General overview of Terras de Cavaleiros Aspiring Geopark and introduction to the field trip (Diamantino Pereira) 14:30 – Field trip (part I) 20:00 – Dinner	14:30 – Lectures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Geodiversity: a key basis for geoconservation, geoparks and geotourism (Murray Gray) Geodiversity assessment (Paulo Pereira) Part I - Azores Archipelago: islands of geodiversity Geological heritage and geoconservation: Part II - The Azorean experience and the Azores Geopark: challenges and opportunities for the geotourism (João C. Nunes) 20:00 – Dinner	Free afternoon (opening of the Saint Peter's Fair; sport activities; etc.)